

The ESU Comes to Your Television Screen

Thanks to our friends at C-SPAN2, you can now watch ESU programs on television. Three of our recent events, a November 14 luncheon with British statesman Roy Jenkins, a January 18 presentation by ecologist Lester R. Brown, and a March 13 lecture on Eisenhower and Churchill by historian James Humes, have been aired on C-SPAN2's weekend BookTV service and are likely to be featured again in the near future. Meanwhile the network expects to cover many of our future programs. Please visit us at www.esuwdc.org for timely updates.
