92-95 FM & 198 LW

Ready for Your BBC Debut?

If so, you should sign up for a memorable afternoon with host JONATHAN DIMBLEBY and the eminent guests who'll join him for a special installment of ANY QUESTIONS? for BBC Radio 4.

This engaging program has been a staple of British life since 1948, and we're delighted to announce that its producers have chosen to bring it to America for an on-the-spot look at how the U.S. is responding to global terrorism. Panelists will include such luminaries as former Speaker of the House NEWT GINGRICH, the New America Foundation's TED HALSTEAD, Arabic television channel Al Jazeera's bureau chief HAFEZ AL MARIZAI, and the United Kingdom's Baroness SHIRLEY WILLIAMS.

ANY QUESTIONS?

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 2001
12:30 – 2:00 P.M.

JACK MORTON AUDITORIUM
GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
805 21ST STREET NW

(Northeast Corner at H Street)

Audience members will be seated between 11:45 and 12:15. Those who have submitted questions in advance may have a chance to ask them on the air as participants in a thought-provoking discussion.

Light refreshments will be served after the proceedings conclude.

There is no admission charge for this sprightly forum, but the ESU will be exceedingly grateful for tax-deductible donations (which can be billed to credit cards) to help defray the expenses it has incurred in making it possible.

To request up to 2 free tickets for this unique occasion, you should do one of the following: (a) complete this form and either fax it to (202) 234-4639 or mail it to The English-Speaking Union, 1526 New Hampshire Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20036, or (b) provide the information called for here in an e-mail message to esuwdc@msn.com. If you wish to pose a question for the panel, please submit it along with your request for tickets. For additional details, call (202) 234-4602.
